

Stabilizer, Place Your Bets

I feel it closing
I feel the hands grip
I feel you slowly waiting for me to slip
But I won't give you
Just what you're looking for

Let it out, I know that you're dissapointed
Get it out, I know that you're wrong about me

Take it to the grave
Because I cannot change the mind
That you have made

The two of you
It's been years without a clue
Standing by
I've long since passed you by
Still I can't give you
Just what you're looking for

So I suggest you let it out
Come on, just get it out
