

Stacey Kent, The Ice Hotel

Let's you and me go away to the Ice Hotel
The Caribbean's all booked out and it's just as well
While I'd have been much keener, on Barbados and Antigua
But just now I think the arctic will suit us well
Let's you and me go away to the Ice Hotel

We've built it all with ice that's pure and clear
The sofas, the lobby, even the chandelier
A thermostat guarantees a steady minus 5 degrees
What other place could serve our needs so well?
Let's you and me go away to the Ice Hotel

Romantic places like Verona or Paris they'll always lead you astray
You'd have to be a novice to ever trust Venice and those dreamy waterways
And what the tropics can do I know only too well
So let's you and me go away to the Ice Hotel
