

Stacie Orrico, Hesitation

Why do you spend all your time watching life pass you by hanging onto your pride All that you can anticipate hoping all your mistakes will some how fade away

*bridge*

what are you to do with this
it's either hit or miss
you know the answer now
come on give your heart away
i know you hurt inside
i know the reason why
don't wait a moment
come on and give you heart away

*chorus*

why the hesitation
God is ever waiting
gotta stop procrastinating
can you feel me
why the hesitation
you can pick your destination
and the risk is so worth taking
can you hear me

your heart will never be the same giving up drama's days
letting go uneasy ways
when will you ever realize letting go all your lies all the pain will subside

don't wait a moment

God is ever waiting
can you feel me
why the hesitation
(repeat chorus)

Did you
know it's so easy
so why'd you say
you're too busy
you know you need him
come on and give your heart away letting go
why you waiting?

you're wasting time
hesitating
are you ready to believe?

why the hesitation
and the risk is so worth takin

whatcha need, whatcha need whatcha want, whatcha want
(what you need is something genuine)
i'm just wondering why

why the hesitation
why the hesitation

why the hesitation
