

Stacie Orrico, (Put Your Trust) In His Hand

O, yeeeeaaa

When I woke up today
I thought about my dream
And how true
It really was
It was about some man
Who I don't even know

He was in pain
I reached out too far
And I let him go
But I'm really really sorry I did

(Because In Reality)
Someone's lonely
I wonder who
Someone's bleeding
What can I do
O, I don't know if
I can get to you
But you can always put your trust
In His hand

God will always be there for you
No matter who you are He'll care for you
Never give up hope always be true
God will help you feel brand new

(Because God's a Forgiver and...)
Someone's lonely
I wonder who
Someone's bleeding
What can I do
O, I don't know if
I can get to you
But you can always put your trust
In His hand

He'll never let you cry
Maybe He'll let you die
But that's because
He loves you so much and
He hates to see you in pain
You may think that God is insane
But He'd give up anything for you!

(Jesus Died on the Cross for You)
Someone's lonely
I wonder who
Someone's bleeding
What can I do
O, I don't know if
I can get to you
But you can always put your trust
In His hand

(Don't Ever Lose Hope)
Someone's lonely
I wonder who
Someone's bleeding
What can I do
O, I don't know if
I can get to you

But you can always put your trust
In His hand

God's hand will show you the way
He knows, He made your day
