

Staind, Intro

Thank you to the people in my life
For putting up with me
And thank you for the time you sacrificed
All on account of me

For all the times I didn't say
The times I didn't say
For all the times I didn't say
The times I didn't say

Fuck you to the jaded and the fake
Like to see what you would do
Fuck you and the judgments that you make
We're not all perfect just like you
Like you, like you

For all the times I didn't say
The times I didn't say
For all the times I didn't say
The times I didn't say

All the times I didn't say
All the times I didn't say

Thank you to the people in my life
For putting up with me
