

Staind, Intro (14 Shades Of Grey)

thank you to the people in my life for putting up with me and thank you for the time you sacrificed all on account of me

(chorus)

for all the times i didn't say
the times i didn't say

f**k you to the jaded and the fake like to see what you would do f**k you and the judgements you make we're not all perfect just like you, like you, like you

(chorus)

all the times i didn't say (x2) thank you to the people in my life for putting up with me
