

Stan Bush, Landslide

A fool for love, yeah, there's one born every minute
Well I must've come into this big old world, baby, right on time
And all this talk about the art of letting go, oh
Well I know I'll never learn it
Not when I'm still lost with thoughts of you burnin' in my mind
The love that we found all tumbled down, now my hands are tied
I heard the sound, my heart hit the ground
Yeah, when you left me, felt like a landslide
Caught baby, I'm caught under a landslide (under a landslide)
You left me babe with nothin' but a bye-bye
Caught baby, I'm caught under a landslide (yeah)
Caught baby, I'm caught under a landslide
You left me babe with nothin' but a bye-bye (bye-bye)
And love is tough, yeah, it's a shame we didn't win it
Maybe someday I'll find the strength to make such a hard hard climb
The love that we found all tumbled down, now my hands are tied
I heard the sound, my heart hit the ground
Yeah, when you left me, felt like a landslide
Caught baby, I'm caught under a landslide (under a landslide)

You left me babe with nothin' but a bye-bye
Caught baby, I'm caught under a landslide (ooh yeah yeah)
Caught baby, I'm caught under a landslide
You left me babe with nothin' but a bye-bye (bye-bye baby) bye-bye
Don't make me livin' underneath a landslide
Come on baby, you got me with my hands tied
(Solo)
(Felt like a landslide)
Caught baby, I'm caught under a landslide (landslide)
You left me babe with nothin' but a bye-bye
Caught baby, I'm caught under a landslide (oh yeah yeah yeah)
Caught baby, I'm caught under a landslide (under a landslide)
You left me babe with nothin' but a bye-bye (ooh yeah yeah, under a landslide)
Bye-bye (yeah yeah)
Caught baby, I'm caught under a landslide
You left me babe with nothin' but a bye-bye
Caught baby, I'm caught under a landslide...
