

Stan Bush, Language Of The Heart

Wish That I Could Help You Let It Go
We Try So Hard To Hold On To Somethin' We Believe
Will Someday Set Us Free
But We Always End Up Right Where We've Begun

All The Voices Screaming In Your Head
Never Leaving You Alone
They Tell You What To Feel
And What They Think Is Real
And It's Hard To Tell What's Right
From What Is Wrong, Oh

But In The Language Of The Heart
There's A Message Far Apart
From This World Of Our Illusions
And In The Silence You Will Find
That The Answers Come With Time
And It's Where Your Journey Starts
In The Language Of The Heart

Words Of Wisdom Falling To The Ground
None So Deaf As Those Who Hate
Can You See What You've Become
So Hurried And So Numb
Better Wake Up Now
It's Gettin' Kinda Late, Oh

But In The Language Of The Heart
There's A Message Far Apart
From This World Of Our Illusions
And In The Silence You Will Find
That The Answers Come With Time
As They Whisper In The Dark
Oh, In The Language Of The Heart

Ooh Oh
Ooh Ooh
Oooh Ooh

But In The Language Of The Heart
There's A Message Far Apart
From This World Of Our Illusions
And In The Silence You Will Find
That The Answers Come With Time
And It's Where Your Journey Starts
(Everythin's Gonna Come With Time)

And In The Language Of The Heart
There's A Message Far Apart
From This World Of Our Illusions
And In The Silence You Will Find
The Answers Come With Time
As They Whisper In The Dark
Oh, In The Language Of The Heart

Ooh Oh

That The Answers Come With Time
