

Standover Radio, Mess

She's alone it's not the first time that she's felt this pain
And it don't feel right.
Another night another shattered dream she has to face
And she's not fine

Never just have strength not give it all
'Cause everyone's a mess
Everyone's a mess
Never just believe, not pull you through
'Cause everything's a mess
Everyone's a mess over this
You gotta tell me one more lie for me

Missed again, damn, I hope my life won't end my life this way
It's not my time
It breaks the skin the shit you throw at me don't mean a thing
Not this time

Never just have strength not give it all
'Cause everyone's a mess
Everyone's a mess
Never just believe, not pull you through
'Cause everything's a mess
Everyone's a mess over this
You gotta tell me one more lie for me

We always find a way
We gotta find a better way (We gotta find a better way)
We gotta find a better way (Gotta tell me one more lie for me)

Never just have strength not give it all
'Cause everyone's a mess
Everyone's a mess
Never just believe, not pull you through
'Cause everything's a mess
Everyone's a mess
Everything's a mess, everyone's a mess,
Everything's a mess, everyone's a mess
