

Stanford Prison Experiment, Cansado

Another sale, another self
Rotting on a crowded shelf
Smell of it everywhere
Brings those tears to my eyes

Desire to assassinate
An empty drive to relate
There's a sign: "Out to Lunch"
Worms with principles

Butcher head running around
Reaching for the obvious
Wanting to want it all
But how do our choices relate with

Desire to assassinate
Kill the drive to relate
There's a sign: "Out to Lunch"
Forget your principles

All the cowards raging, laughing
At the courage of the dreamers screaming
All the cowards smile and laugh at
All that's happening, all the dreaming
Still the cowards have their way
We're all devoured by the fake

Butcher head running around
Gripping to the obvious
Wanting to pin it down
How do our choices relate with

Desire to assassinate
Kill the drive to relate
There's a sign: "Out to Lunch"
Worms with principles

All the cowards raging, laughing
At the courage of the dreamers screaming
All the cowards smile and laugh at
All that's happening, all the dreaming
Still the cowards have their way
We're all devoured by the fake

Another sale, another sell
I can't explain the dirty chain
Sell it all down
The obvious
My chemicals
My beautiful
Just another sale

All the cowards raging, laughing
At the courage of the dreamers screaming
All the cowards smile and laugh at
All that's happening, all the dreaming
Still the cowards have their way

Another sale, another sell
Sell it all down
The obvious
My chemicals

My beautiful

Tear it all down
Chemical
Feasible
Obvious
Obvious
Yeah
Yeah
Yeah
Yeah
Yeah
