

Stanfour, Lonely life

It's the fight that falls around the place she stands
It's the way, you know, she make's you a better man
Then you walk away, like you do so well
And you ask yourself, and I ask myself

Ref:

Would it be so hard
To let yourself feel something
Would it be so strange
To let yourself go
Would it be such a drag
Just to finally let somebody get inside
Your lonely life
My lonely life gets cold
I wish I could wrap her up inside my soul
I wish I could call her up and tell her all the secrets that I keep
But these words are said inside my head

Ref:

Would it be so hard
To let yourself feel something
Would it be so strange
To let yourself go
Would it be such a drag
Just to finally let somebody get inside
Your lonely life
Your lonely life

I don't wanna be here
I don't wanna let her go
How did she get in here
Then she whispers, she whispers

Ref:

Would it be so hard
To let yourself feel something
Would it be so strange
To let yourself go
Would it be such a drag
Just to finally let somebody get inside
My lonely life
My lonely life
Would it be such a drag
Just to finally let somebody get inside
My lonely life
