

Starfield, Obsession

I am fixed on You
As the world flies by
I have lost myself
In Your blinding light
This obsession is my call
Owning body mind and soul
All I live for is to know You and be known
This obsession makes me whole
I give in to its control
It consumes me like a fire within my bones
I am not my own
I have been erased
Like a canvas washed by the stokes of grace
You're my obsession
You're all I ever need
I'm Your posession
