Starfield, Revolution

If I'm here all alone
If I'm left behind
If they spit in my face
If they hate my kind
I will rise above
I will live for love
I will answer to the call
For the bond between
For the depth unseen
For my God forsake it all
'Cause I'm a fire
I'm a flood
I'm a revolution
I am a war
Already won
I'm a revolution
When the world is at war
When the grace is gone
When the hungry lay dead
While the rich live on
I will rise above
I will live for love
I will answer to the call
For the bond between
For a depth unseen
For my God forsake it all
(Here I stand)
Open hands
Waiting for You
I won't back down
I'll live to speak Your truth
