

Starflyer 59, Dungeon

You're on the outside
He's in the way
You're on the outside in the way
My heart is bleeding
For the one you hate
But you're always in the hallway

And you're always in the hallway

Take your blue news
Take your taste
Take all the good things that you waste
You know I'm coming
To take the blame
And it's always the same

And the same
