So what
So I think you know
That you
Were the first to go

Through lonely towns with one way streets
Met the ones I'd love to meet
By driving cars, deliveries
You're the one who played the keys

It's odd
How you always notice when the world gets you down
I find it odd
How you always notice when the world gets you down

So what
So I think you know
That you
Were the first to go

Through lonely towns with one way streets
Met the ones I'd love to meet
By driving cars, deliveries
You're the one who played the keys

It's odd
How you always notice when the world gets you down
I find it odd
How you always notice when the world gets you down

It's odd...
