Starkillers & Dmitry KO, Let The Love (feat. Amba

You see into my soul with eyes control You see into my soul and take a hold And I will let you in Let the love within Let the love

You are in my mind The windows from my eyes The contemplating fate Into you escaping

You see into my soul with eyes control You see into my soul and take a hold And I will let you in Let the love within Let the love

You see into my soul with eyes control You see into my soul and take a hold And I will let you in Let the love within Let the love with you
