

Starnawski & Urban Noiz, It

I dont care that you say love is just a game, a game that you simply on occasion like to play this time it is not a game you can put up a show here for me for me for me but I know, that you are acting, yes I know,

I know, its a show
'cos we both want the same
we dont want any games
we dont want any lies
we dont want to get hurt
we dont want to be left
we dont want any tears
we dont want any fear
we both want something real
this time its not a game
ref.

This is not a silly game
we both know, we want the same
let us choose sun over rain can you feel its the time?
I can feel its the time
lets be honest now again
its so obvious, its clear
lets admit and lets say this is not a game, a game this is not a thing that happens every day
and we want this to work yes, to work, to work, to work lets stop acting, lets stop putting up a show it is real - this we both know

ref.

bridge:
oh oh oh oh
its real
it just started
it is love
love
