

Starpoint, Object Of My Desire

Ooh...

Whoa, whoa, whoa...yeah

You glanced my way, I lost all control
Desire and need had taken hold
My body quivered, hot flashes ignited in me, ooh, ooh, ooh...
Gazing deep into my eyes
You spoke these words, I was hypnotized
Let me share a night in your fantasy, ooh, ooh

Turn on emotions so strong
Passion's fire burns on and on
My body screams
Please make love to me

You're the object of my desire
Baby, ignite my fire
Object of my desire
Hey, you really turn me on

You're the object (Sugar) of my desire (Yeah)
Oh, baby, ignite my fire
Object of my desire
Hey, you really turn me on

When I go to sleep at night
Visions of you here by my side
Fireworks explode deep inside of me, ay-yi-yi-yi
I pinch myself as you're lyin' there
We kiss each other, now I'm really scared
Too much to ask even for a fantasy, oh, oh, oh

Turn on emotions so strong
Passion's fire burns on and on
My body screams
Please make love to me

Cause you're the object of my desire (Yeah, yeah)
Baby, ignite my fire
Object of my desire
Hey, you really turn me on

You're the object of my desire
Won't you ignite my fire
Object of my desire
Hey, you really turn me on and on and on and on

You're the object (I've got to have your love)
(I need your love)
Object (Wanna be the one, baby)
Hey, you really turn me on

You're the object (Love so fine)
Baby (I wanna know), would you be mine
Object
Hey, you really turn me on and on and on and on

Object
Object
Hey, you really turn me on
