

Stars Are Falling, Gun In Hand

Shots in your eyes.

Take her gun away.

It's gone in your eyes.

Forever I will write you letters of love, whether or not you read them.

Just to make you put your gun away.

Take her gun away.

Please accept my apology for what I did to you.

I've led you to believe that I love you.

It's gone in your eyes.

Things are changing.

Things are not the same.

I'm falling down.

Love cannot see through you, but how can I be the one, to be here with you, for all time.

Take her gun away.

Forgive me for giving you the gun.

I know its wrong for me to ask this of you, when I am to blame.
