

Stars, Better Be Heaven

This is the seventh time,
And I've got seven reasons.
And almost everytime,
It ends up with you leaving.
Just give it one more chance,
It's all about the truth.
Don't close your eyes at night,
Till our mouths have kissed.

I'll count the the steps to happiness,
I've missed,
Recall,
One is the touch,
Two is the feeling,
Three is the answer,
Four the meaning,
Five and six are the devil's kicks,
So seven better be heaven.

I saw you turn to him,
As the last guests were leaving.
And then you caught my eyes,
Bowed your head in grieving,
And said,

One is the touch,
Two is the feeling,
Three is the answer,
Four the meaning,
Five and six are the devil's kicks,
So seven better be heaven.

One is the touch,
Two is the feeling,
Three is the answer,
Four the meaning,
Five and six are the devil's kicks,
So seven better be heaven.
