

Starsailor, Born Again

But for the grace of God she'd cry herself to sleep,
Because the grace of God is something she can keep.

Ohhh it won't be long until their hold is broken,
Ohhh it won't be long until we've found our home.

It's for the good of you I sing sweet melody,
They'll cast the first stone when the last one's out of reach.

Ohhh it won't be long their hold is broken,
Ohhh it won't be long until we've found our home.

Forget where to begin,
Brother I have not sinned.

I have not sinned.

But for the grace of God she'd cry herself to sleep,
But now the grace of God is the reason that she weeps.

Ohhh it won't be long until their hold is broken,
Ohhh it won't be long until we've found our home.

When summer comes - light my life - snow will melt away,
When summer comes - light my life - snow will melt away.

I was born again, I was born again,
Not into the world they put me in,
She was born again, she was born again,
Not into the world they put her in.

I was born again, I was born again,
Not into the world they put me in,
She was born again, she was born again,
Not into the world they put her in.
