

Starsailor, Counterfeit Life

Come down, slowly
Hotel lobby
Our lives are counterfeit if we don't lay down
I should be used to it, but I'm losing my strength now

Come a time when
This darkness, will end

A war for corporate glory
Re-told as a fairy story

Come a time when
This darkness
Will end

I got enough respite to keep on trying
I got enough respite to keep from crying

Come a time when
This darkness
Will end

We should be used to it
Our lives are counterfeit
So lets get back to earth and make the best of it (repeat x4)
