

Starsailor, Fidelity

You take me 'cause your neighbour does not see.
That would seem like lunacy to me.

This is my head, you're in my world.
And there's no one but you girl.
This is my head, you're in my world.
And there's no one but you girl.

Tie your lover down while you are free.
That would seem like pure hipocracy.

(2x)

This is my head, you're in my world.
And there's no one but you girl.
This is my head, you're in my world.
And there's no one but you girl.
