

Starsailor, Hurts Too Much

We all get burned sometimes
Lately Ive had mine
Starts off in your mind
Runs right down your spine
We all get hurt by love
When youve had enough
Cracks all start to show
Sooner than you know
And it hurts too much
Im letting you go
Ill walk these wet streets
Somewhere alone
We all get taken in
By dreams well never be in
Problems that we face
Soon will be replaced
And it hurts too much
Im letting you go
Ill walk these wet streets
Somewhere alone
And it hurts too much
Im letting you go
Ill walk these wet streets
Somewhere alone
Youre looking for something
You already know
Im down upon my knees
I see a ray of hope
Im down upon my knees
I see a ray of hope
