

Start Trouble, Chorus For Destruction

I set a Chorus For Distruction
When I choose to give myself away
And Im afraid to change what I already started
But I can find another way
So I sit in stare out the window and wonder "Will I ever amount to anything?"

Atleast nowhere is somewhere
I just need to much

Im Bored out of mind
Theres nothing much to do here sit around all day and Wish that i was somewhere else
and if i had a purpose
i dont know what id do with it Im so used to this

I feel the pressure of the answers to the questions in my head i know they'll be there how do i get back to my state of mind my appitite for life is gone right now i dont care

Atleast nowhere is somewhere
I just need to much

Im Bored out of mind
Theres nothing much to do here
sit around all day and
Wish that i was somewhere else
and if i had a purpose
i dont know what id do with it Im so used to this

im gunna give it away,gunna give it away,gunna give it away you say gunna give it away,gunna give it away,gunna give it away you say gunna give it away,gunna give it away,gunna give it away no way

Its okay

I set a Chorus For Distruction
When I choose to give myself away
And Im afraid to change what I already started
But I can find another way

I just need to much

Im Bored out of mind
Theres nothing much to do here
sit around all day and
Wish that i was somewhere else
and if i had a purpose
i dont know what id do with it
Im so used to this

Im Bored out of mind
Theres nothing much to do here
sit around all day and
Wish that i was somewhere else
and if i had a purpose
i dont know what id do with it Im so used to this
