

Static Wonder, Soul

Tell me your secrets
Let me inside your soul
Tell me you love me,
And how you'll never let me go.

I must be floating away, I'm getting lost in the waves
Forever wasting away with you.
And I'll be holding your hand, tequila sunrise in the sand
Let's take the long way back, and watch this golden sunset.

And you know how much I love to watch you sleep
Close your eyes, say goodnight, and let the ocean breathe you in.

Tell me your secrets
Let me inside your soul
Tell me you love me,
And how you'll never let me go.
And we're surrounded by the sun and the sea, babe
Let's take it nice and slow.
Oh won't you throw me around, babe?
Just like a skipping stone.

Feet up on the dashboard, with the city in the rearview
Stamping in your passport, with the waves all around you
I can see the sun, babe,
It's the beginning of a new day.
So hold me like I'm yours now,
Tell me that you're sure.

Tell me your secrets
Let me inside your soul
Tell me you love me,
And how you'll never let me go.
And we're surrounded by the sun and the sea, babe
Let's take it nice and slow.
Oh won't you throw me around, babe?
Just like a skipping stone.
