Status Quo, Down To You

Down to you. it's down to you
The way you do, it's like a dream come true
Down to you, it's down to you
We're sailing to the horizon

I never gave myself a chance, I hardly went to school
I smoked away the afternoons, didnt concentrate at all
I never gave a second thought to what was going down
My only interest was whereabouts of Shirley Brown

But now I love the way you talk, I love the way you walk
There's something in your smile that haunts me all the while
Can't forget the way you walk, I love to hear you talk
You've heard it all before, you've broken down the door

Whatever way was easier I take it to survive
I never gave it everything and always take a dive
Whenever I was supposed to work I never thought I should
I set my fee and wondered why they never understood

But now I love the way you talk, I love the way you walk
There's something in your smile that haunts me all the while
Can't forget the way you walk, I love to hear you talk
You've heard it all before, you've broken down the door

Down to you. it's down to you
The way you do, it's like a dream come true
Down to you, it's down to you
We're sailing to the horizon

It's always been a mystery, it's always been a maze
Wasting all the nights away and losing all the days
A person wrote an anagram, I always got it wrong
I blamed it on the way the television came along

But now I love the way you talk, I love the way you walk
There's something in your smile that haunts me all the while
Can't forget the way you walk, I love to hear you talk
You've heard it all before, you've broken down the door

But now I love the way you talk, I love the way you walk
There's something in your smile that haunts me all the while
Now I love the way you talk, I love the way you walk
There's something in your smile that haunts me all the while
Now I love the way you talk, I love the way you walk
There's something in your smile that haunts me all the while
Now I love the way you talk, I love the way you walk
There's something in your smile that haunts me all the while
