

Staynd Glass, New Beginning

How do you feel now?
Why'd you leave us standing?
Maybe next time you'll be quicker to see.
We can never amount to what you want us to be.

It's time to start a new beginning.
It's time to make it on our own.

Your mistakes we have learned.
The way we should live is not the way you've shown.

We realize now what we must do.
We need to move on even without you.
To you, I sing, ??????????
Finally our ways with you are now done.

It's time to start a new beginning.
It's time to make it on our own.
Your mistakes we have learned.
The way we should live is not the way you've shown.

It's time for us to start anew.
It's time for us to change.
We're better off without you.
We can make it on our own.

It's time to start a new beginning.
It's time to make it on our own.
Your mistakes we have learned.
The way we should live is not the way you've shown.
