

Steel Attack, Forgotten Land

Far beyond the horizon
Away from the rising sun
Between the stars of Zion
The first battle has been won
Now meet the mighty dragon
And save the Promised Land
Got to fight a thousand pagans
With only the sword in his hand

The Kingdom you will save
To the warrior so brave
You will enter the throne
To get your final crown

You're a warrior
You're a savior
With the sword and the skull in your hand
You're on a mission

Write the final chapter
On the conqueror's day
All you ever were after
To send the dragon away
The path lies wide open
For the Promised Land
You have been chosen
To lead it with your hand

The Kingdom you will save...

You're a warrior...
