

Steel Dragon, Stand up and shout

Stand up and shout
Stand up stand up stand up and let it out
Stand up and shout
Stand up stand up
I know what you want and what your thinking
I can free your sexuality.
No ones ever tortured you with pleasure
Pleasures all you'll ever feel from me
Stand up and shout
Stand up stand up stand up and let it out
Stand up and shout
Stand up stand up
I just want to see you in the garden
Dressed up as you came into this world
Shining through the candle of deception
Lighting up the underlying world.
Stand up and shout
Stand up stand up stand up and let it out
Stand up and shout
Stand up stand up
Stand up and shout
Stand up stand up stand up and let it out
Stand up and shout
Stand up stand up
