

Steel Prophet, The Secret

I have a secret hidden behind the wall
Like a junky with needle and spoon
It lies in wait for me
At the fire yesterday
I glanced by mistake and read a line
The line said "I am born";
Dickens an author penned the line

(Chorus)

I have read
Broken the law
I have learned
I have saw

When the sleep was swept from my eyes
I the fool was seen
A wife devoid of thoughts and feelings an empty waking dream
A life spent destroying thoughts preserved in revered tomes Hopes and dreams, poetry, feelings that make life real
