

Steel Train, If I Leave You Traveling

You know I've been traveling
a long, long time.
I've seen the ends of this world
in cold drives(?).

And if I'll leave you traveling
a long way to carry me home.

You know I knew this store man
who took my friend.
They found him the next day
he was cold and pale(?).

And if I'll leave you traveling
a long way to carry me home.

Man I lost my brother
to the bullets of the war.
They're gonna bomb your cities
at the cold of war.

And if I die before I learn to live
you'll carry me home.

And then I sent a letter
to the woman that I love.
She says baby I'm sorry
but I'm colder in your arms.

And if she leaves me traveling
a long way till I'll carry her home.

And if I'll leave you traveling
all I know is to carry me home.
