

Steel Train, Talking To Myself

And you turn your head
And I kiss your neck
This routine that you never though would fade
I wish that i could say
That you're the only one to blame

They'll be no no last goodbyes
The encore it just wont fly tonight
The hosp(?) and I die with my pride
So this song will fade with the

It's just like talking to myself...
2 worlds
3 hearts
And 1 boy caught in the middle of a dream
I'm caught in the middle of a dream

I close my eyes
Is it your smile?
Those moments last forever as a I sleep
But i'll stay awake to hear you cry
Your doubtful tears they keep me in knee-deep

Laugh in my face
Because you should
A stupid boy who took you for a fool
My veins ran dry and so i smile
And I'll eat your heart for life

It's just like talking to myself...
2 worlds
3 hearts
And one boy
Caught in the middle of a dream
This boy is caught in the middle of a dream

And I'll always devote myself above myself
Cause I can't let you love me anymore
