

Stefanie Heinzmann, Masterplan

Don't speak, sit and listen you can whisper, but don't you shout They say don't fight it coz you won't beat it so check you're thinking and watch your mouth I but you can shake down turn that as around don't let em sell you out you'll see you're better than you think you are and finally this oportunity now whats it gonna be so won't you tell me tell me yeah

(what are you gonna do?)
gonna raise the pressure (where are you going to?) I know my destination (why don't you understand?) gonna make my move (it's all in the masterplan)

Messin up the masterplan I save your questions, no opinions Take a backseat and now you're place there ain't no room for imperfection don't want your ideas, don't like your face you don't have to, do what they tell you to ain't got no hold on you you see you're better than you think you are it's your time, ain't gonna you're pass you by these rules they don't apply you better tell me tell me yeah

(what are you...)
(what are you gonna do) kick it into action (where are you going to?)
I'll take my own direction
