

Stefy, Lucky Girl

Wind me up and I will sing for you and only you
Make believe it's fun so don't you cry
My butterfly
The perfect place, your pretty face
What a lucky girl that you should have someone to kiss goodnight
All the while that you were sleeping in your room you kiss goodnight
Tear my heart into a piece of junk
For your love
Every little angel fades away
Into dust
Am I too much?
Or not enough?
Ohh ohh oh ohhoh
What a lucky girl that you should have someone to kiss goodnight
All the while that you were sleeping in your room you kiss goodnight
Don't you know it hurts?
And you know it hurts
What a lucky girl that you should have someone to kiss goodnight
All the while that you were sleeping in your room you kiss goodnight
What a lucky girl that you should have someone to kiss goodnight
All the while that you were sleeping in your room you kiss goodnight
You kiss goodnight (x7)
