

Stefy, Orange Crush

You were so sweet
Swept off my feet
Thought it was fate
It was just fake
Synthetic lust

Cool summer bliss
Wrapped in a kiss
Such a mess
I must express
You're like orange crush

I was a fool but now I see
You're perfect love was make believe
And that your heart is empty

I've had too much of this sugar rush
Uh oh, no more orange crush
I've had too much, you've been cut off
Uh oh, no more orange crush

You made me sick
Habit I kicked
Your flat and stale
I had to bail
On orange crush

I was a fool but now I see
You're perfect love was make believe
And now the bottle's empty

I've had too much of this sugar rush
Uh oh, no more orange crush
I've had too much, won't you shut up
Uh oh, no more orange crush

Uh oh, Uh oh, no more orange crush
Uh oh, Uh oh, no more orange...

The orange sky has turned into a deeper blue
I can't believe that i fell down into you

I've had too much of this sugar rush
Uh oh, no more orange crush
I've had too much, won't you shut up
Uh oh, no more orange crush

I've had too much of this sugar rush
I've had too much of this sugar rush
No more orange crush
