

Stefy, Where Are The Boys

I'm like a hurricane
In Ohio
Coming down your street
Knocking down your door
Cos I'm all wound up like a top
That's about to spin out of control

Where are the boys
It's like I'm a car that's gone out for a ride
Without a driver inside
Can't you see that I'm just like car
When the wind slows I fall, crash into the ground
Cos I'm alone again
Yeah, somebody give me a clue
Where are the boys
I'm broken like a toy
Where are the boys

I'm like Godzilla
In Tokyo
I get you all made up
But don't you know
When this girl needs love
Yeah, she can't be stopped
So won't you hit the gas
And let's go

Where are the boys
It's like I'm a car that's gone out for a ride
Without a driver inside
Can't you see that I'm just like car
When the wind slows I fall, crash into the ground
Cos I'm alone again
Yeah, somebody give me a clue
Where are the boys
I'm broken like a toy
Where are the boys
They've been destroyed
I'm so annoyed
Where are the boys

I'm like a hurricane
In Ohio
Coming down your street
Knocking down your door

Where are the boys
It's like I'm a car that's gone out for a ride
Without a driver inside
Can't you see that I'm just like car
Cos I'm alone again
Where are the boys
Where are the boys
I'm so annoyed

Lost in my head
They play hard to get
They just make a mess
