

Stella One Eleven, Go Slow Girl

go slow girl in your cool, cool world let your hair hang down take it nice and slow try to let it go its what its all about u know it could be a good day it could all go away just remember moments make up the day and then sometimes
in a moment
it could just be fine

don't you worry now you'll get through somehow not gonna let you go
don't u take it on
one can't be that strong im gonna let you know

stand still boy says he's full of joy let it pass u by
take it easy too
cos when it gets to you it will make you cry you know it could be a good day it could all go away
just remember moments make up the day

don't u worry now
you'll get through somehow
no-one can't be that strong

we'll take care of you it's easy too come around we'll stay up all night just to get it right somehow
go slow girl

don't you take it on
