

Stellar Kart, Always Waiting

Hating yesterday always on the go
Looking past today you can't enjoy
The show never satisfied til you've
Reached the end but even then
You'd like the chance to start
Again you'll never find what you are looking for

[chorus]

Always waiting for tomorrow
Always waiting for
The new to come around
Still waiting for the grass that's greener
Always waiting for anything but now

Looks like the skies are clear
You hope that it would rain
But when the clouds appear you want
The sun again if you had everything
Or nothing in your hands
You'll never be content in any
Circumstance here's why
You never find peace of mind on
Your own
You can't be content when you live
In tomorrow
He is the one you should
Be looking for
