

Stellar*, Lightspeed

from where i stand you're a different man i don't believe it before my eyes you don't empahsise cause you don't feel it from one to another you're gone
from one to another you're gone

Chorus:

everywhere you go everything you see blink and you will know living at lightspeed
welcome in decay
loving the machine
blow it all away

before my eyes you're in camouflage but i can see you my ears don't take toy your radiowave but i recieve it
from one to another you're gone
from one to another you're gone

Chorus

don't wait anymore
i'm not looking out for you you're already gone there's nothing left of you
from one to another you're gone
