Stellastarr*, Love And Longing

Goodnight
Tomorrow morning isn't far
I will be interesting
When you're alone and feeling bored
I watched a city cry
I thought I lost you in the fall
I thought of everything
I cannot lose you anymore

So won't you stay? I'm drowning in the rain Darlin' say the words And I will stay I'm drowning in the rain Darlin' say the words And I will stay the night

I'm just the trouble that you need I'm just a year away from when the future swallows me And when you're left behind It takes a lifetime to be seen Cause something happened here Somehow we're younger in our dreams

So won't you stay?
I'm drowning in the rain
Darlin' say the words
And I will stay
I'm drowning in the rain
Darlin' say the words
And I will stay the night

You're different And all the rest are the same Oh, you're different And all the rest are the same The same, stay the same

Cause something happened here It's not a worthless cause And I said so I can, so I can

Stay
I'm drowning in the rain
Darlin' say the words
And I will stay
I'm drowning in the rain
Darlin' say the words
And I will stay
