

Stellastarr*, Love And Longing (Acoustic)

Goodnight
Tomorrow morning isn't far
I will be interesting
When you're alone and feeling bored
I watched a city cry
I thought I lost you in the fall
I thought of everything
I cannot lose you anymore

So won't you stay?
I'm drowning in the rain
Darlin' say the words
And I will stay
I'm drowning in the rain
Darlin' say the words
And I will stay the night

I'm just the trouble that you need
I'm just a year away from when the future swallows me
And when you're left behind
It takes a lifetime to be seen
Cause something happened here
Somehow we're younger in our dreams

So won't you stay?
I'm drowning in the rain
Darlin' say the words
And I will stay
I'm drowning in the rain
Darlin' say the words
And I will stay the night

You're different
And all the rest are the same
Oh, you're different
And all the rest are the same
The same, stay the same

Cause something happened here
It's not a worthless cause
And I said so I can, so I can

Stay
I'm drowning in the rain
Darlin' say the words
And I will stay
I'm drowning in the rain
Darlin' say the words
And I will stay
