

Stellastarr*, The Diver

They say that you're drowning
You're losing your touch
Have you thrown yourself into the crunch?
They say you're a product with nothing to sell
You can fool your fans but you can't fool yourself

Oh, they're gonna love you when you're lost,
You've prayed and you've sinned
It's the last road taken
They're gonna love you when you've died
It's the last wave goodbye

Straight outta Kansas
To the city of fame
Don't let those blinding lights start blinding your game
You say that you're loaded, a thousand degrees
Does it feel cold now that you're down on your knees?

Oh, they're gonna love you when you've lost
You've prayed and you've sinned
It's the last road taken
They're gonna love you when you've died
It's the last wave goodbye
Can you honestly say you felt better yesterday?
You are the champion they cry
Are you drowning inside?
Inside, inside

Oh lonely boy, I know you cry
But there's no people here to sympathize
They say that you're loaded
Oh, you say that you're loaded

Oh, they're gonna love you when you've lost
You've prayed and you've sinned
It's the last road taken
They're gonna love you when you've died
It's the last wave goodbye
Are you drowning inside?
Inside
Inside (drowning)
Inside (drowning)
