Perfect Gurl

Yea

I know sometimes
Things can be so f**k'd up
But you no what
I got won f**king leason for use
Try to find that the perfect gurl
Cause there aint that much in this world

Baby i still remember when i picked u from the lot
And i knew it when i grabbed u that you'd always have a place in my heart
And i told u from the start i would neva let no one hurt u
I couldnt wait to get u home time to bust and work u
First time i pulled u back, baby u were kinda tight
But its all good when we worked it every single night "haha"
You were the quiet type wenever we rolled
But when things got out of hand u were ready to explode
And i loved u baby even lented u around
Just to show all my homies how my baby gets down
And u never got jelous when i brang new bitches to play
Cause after i bust i threw those bitches away
No other bitches could stay or share the love that we had Cause you kept me alive throught all the bad times we had
And believe me baby nobody in this f**king! world
Could ever take your place at my side, u my baby girl "love you"

Now hush my baby i miss you now
Im just writing to tell you how i miss u now
Stiffen that upper smile up my baby
You betta,Cause i'll be thinking of yea
Thru the years that im gona be here
I hope u know im missing yea right now cause im freaking now
Im freaking so heard that i got thinking's now
My thinking are pretty crazy my baby
But i promise that im gona be alright

See my little baby dont u know u drive me crazy
Everybody in this f**king! hood knows your my baby
And even though bitches hate me u stand up and fire back
These bitches aint shit thats why they run when we attack
And the police is always tryin to break our perfect team apart
Thats why sometimes i leave u at home or in the dark
And u always understand u know im always comin home
Rest your head under the pillow or the cuboard near the phone
Your the first thing i touch when i wake up in the morning

You make me feel excited when im still up yawning
But baby listen u know we cant ride no more
Still remember that day they threw u straight on to the floor
They broke down our door, told us not to make a single move
We coulda died together but instead we had to lose
And i regret it baby u saw the tear from my eye
Now i gotta get a new gun/haha

Now hush my baby i miss you now
Im just writing to tell you how i miss u now
Stiffen that upper smile up my baby
You betta,Cause i'll be thinking of yea
Thru the years that im gona be here
I hope u know im missing yea right now cause im freaking now
Im freaking so heard that i got thinking's now
My thinking are pretty crazy my baby

But i promise that im gona be alright
