

Stephanie D., Truly Yours

There's a ray of light
Shinin' down on me
After all this time
I waited patiently

Just for you to come
Right into my life
But I finally found
Love is on my side

And now things ain't the same
Ever since you came
Now my life's just begun
Because you're the one

I'm truly yours
You're on my mind
I think of you
'most all the time

Say can it be
That I'm in love
When you are all
I'm thinkin' of

You can make me smile
When I'm feeling down
You give me the strength
To turn it all around

You're the world to me
You can make me fly
You're the face I see
When I close my eyes

Do you know that you are
Deep inside my heart
No more clouds hide the sun
Because you're the one

I'm truly yours
You're on my mind
I think of you
'most all the time

Say can it be
That I'm in love
When you are all
I'm thinkin' of

I'm truly yours
You're on my mind
I think of you
'most all the time

Say can it be
That I'm in love
When you are all
I'm thinkin' of

Now my life' just begun
Because you're the one

I'm truly yours

You're on my mind
I think of you
'most all the time

Say can it be
That I'm in love
When you are all
I'm thinkin' of

I'm truly yours
You're on my mind
I think of you
'most all the time

Say can it be
That I'm in love
When you are all
I'm thinkin' of
can it be that i'm in love
when you're all i'm thinking of all i'm thinking of
