

Stephanie Dosen, By And By

Oooh, I'll be gone
By this time tomorrow
And the bells in the courtyard
Sighing out their lines, singing
Oh how times goes by

Oh, have I stayed too long
Over here, over here

Oh, have I stayed too long
Over here, over here, over here

Oooh, I'll be gone
By this time tomorrow
This town has a story, I am just a sigh
And now right on time
The night gives disenchanting signs
I'll be saying my last line
By and by

Oh, have I stayed too long
Over here, over here, over here
