

Stephanie Dosen, Like A Dream

Move into the light, love
See how it pulls you in
Like a dream

Fall into my arms now
Oh, how I pull you in
Like a dream

And you disappear like a flame against the sun
We are two, we are one

And it's alright, if you're stuck in yourself
Somehow the light finds it's own way out

Fall into my arms now
Oh, how I pull you in
Like a dream
