

Stephanie Kirkham, When You Were Here

Hears the baby awake, leaves her feelings under the covers
Another day without her lover
Always finds a smile for the sunshine in her life
Making tea for one, why bother?

Tonight her friends are coming round
She said they're coming to hide me
Tell me what they think I need
Oh you know where to find me baby