

Stephanie McIntosh, God Only Knows

How I wake in the morning how I wont see the space that god gave me here in my bed How I make my cup of coffee How i walk to the subway and I miss you hold my hand

God only knows i've fallen, I freak out to deep again.
You told me you loved me i thought that means you love me my stupid heartbreaks when will I ever learn to let go god only knows, god only knows..

How i wonder the sidewalks how I make it to work on time now that youre gone when I cant make my car start when I cant pay the rent.. how will I go on?

God only knows i've fallen, I freak out to deep again. I fall out You told me you loved me i thought that means you love me
my stupid heartbreaks when will I ever learn to let go god only knows

standing in the poring rain fighting back the tears again I thought the love will last forever please I cant seem to.. breathe

I've fallen i freak out.. yeah I've fallen i freak out.. to deep again you told me you loved me I thought that ment you love me when will I ever learn to let go.. god.. god only knows oh, oh, oh yeah
