

Stephen Bishop, Dreams Of Someday

Night is falling
Here in the darkness
I can see
Someone like me
Is calling out
Wondering how my hopes and plans
Slipped through my hands
But it's alright
It's okay
I'll never understand it
It just turned out that way
It's Alright
It's okay
I still have my Dreams of Someday
I can hear them
Shouting my name
out from the crowd
cheering loud
I hear them now
Everything I was meant to be
Guess it wasn't meant for me
CHORUS
Time is just a photograph
I can't go on living for the memories
Tonight, it's okay
Even if where I'm going
is a million miles away
It's alright
It's okay
'cause I still have my Dreams of Someday...
